Temporary Family Permit Application

This permit allows a property owner living on a property in an Agricultural zoning district to place one additional mobile home on their lot to be used as a residence, provided that such mobile home is occupied by person related by blood, adoption, or marriage to family occupying the principal residential use. The Temporary Family Lot permit for such mobile home may be granted for a time period up to 2 years. This property cannot be subdivided into two separate lots. When the permit expires, the applicant may reapply for a new Temporary Family Lot permit.

This accessory use permit application does not supersede any deed restrictions, covenants, and neighborhood by-laws or rules. It is your responsibility to obtain those rules or regulations pertaining to the development of your property.

Code Enforcement will retain copies of all Temporary Family Lot Permits for Renewal and Enforcement Purposes.
